Celle-ci était la véritable lumière, celle qui, en venant dans le monde, éclaire tout être humain.

Un ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The last week of January brought us to Spain for our mid-year briefing with stinters from all over Europe. We enjoyed seeing our friends, the warmer weather, and also talking with leaders about the future. We're considering many different options and praying for the Lord's guidance. We know from experience how fast this second semester goes by. May we remain focused on Jesus in the midst of all there is to do!

Deux REAL PEOPLE

You are touching student's lives in France! Some of them are listed in the center of this page. There is a story behind each name. This is our ministry, and it starts with people. We give you these names because these are the students we're encouraging in their faith or challenging to put their trust in Jesus. We hope you can imagine the pensive eyes and smiles on their faces. Mention them specifically to God when you pray! We are all together changing lives.

Trois ONE SUCH PERSON

"Where is the book of Job?" Eric asked Dan at lunch yesterday. Eric is reading an American novel that makes reference to Job, and he wanted to hear more about it. Talking about spiritual things is simply that easy with Eric. He comes from an atheist family and says he feels he's missing something in his life. He eagerly comes to every bible study, posing questions and sharing his thoughts. He says that he's not a Christian, but little does he know how close he is to the Kingdom of God! His spiritual thirst shows how the Holy Spirit is working within. May we find many more like Eric!

Quatre I HAVE A DREAM

We're researching every possibility in finding a room for ministry in Toulouse. We're asking the local officials, people in our church, and other student groups. Ideally, we'd love to find a location that could be permanently ours. We envision a room large enough to hold a weekly evangelistic meeting as well as host special events. We'd love to present a café atmosphere with tables for discussion and even art on the walls. Café à Bulle could take form and we could invite students to movie and art soirees. Teams who come for summer projects and vision trips could meet there for their briefings, studies, and worship. It could also provide some storage between stint years. It's a big dream, but we have a big God! We're researching what's available to buy or rent, but the Lord would also have to provide the money. For now we pray for the maximum impact with the means we have.

Please pray...

- For the students God has put us into contact with. For some – a saving faith, for others – to grow in their faith.
- For a ministry location in Toulouse.
- For the Lord's wisdom and guidance as we consider the future.

The Lord's blessings to you!
