Celle-ci était la véritable lumière, celle qui, en venant dans le monde, éclaire tout être humain.

un CNA

It was afternoon and the sun through the windshield of the van heated us up— destination, the Pyrenees. People's heads bobbed in sleep. All except Dan, who was committed to drive seven students from Rennes to the New Year's Conference, or CNA. It's a heavy investment for students, but having the van helped with the costs. Snow, mountains, solid teaching, worship and times with the Lord are a great recipe for spiritual growth. In the van starting the nine hour return trip, Dan asked the students what encouraged them most. Somehow almost everything made their list: the speaker, the arts night, the prayer room, praise music, workshops, singing in the nursing home, or just being in the mountains. God blessed our investment. Once again Dan shared the lectio divina bible study method in his workshop and played bass guitar with the praise band. But something new at this CNA was the arts night. We displayed the potter photo exposition, proposed various artistic outlets for the students: sculpture, painting, even cutting snow flakes(which Dan led), and shared testimonies of how God has used people's artistic gifts. The conference was spiritually charged and we hope the momentum continues!

Praises...

- for the great New Year's Conference, and that the van was filled to the brim!

Please pray...

- for the project plans for Burkina Faso.
- that the whole Workman family can share the adventure there together (projected costs, $1250 per person)

deux OUAGADOUGOU

Any idea where Ouagadougou (pronounced Wah-guh'-doo-goo) is? It is the capital of Burkina Faso in west central Africa. Why bring it up? Rennes is sponsoring a spring break project there! Even with all the challenges of poverty, Campus Crusade has still developed a strong campus ministry there. Our goal is to bring a group of students to experience evangelism in a completely different context, with students ready and willing to hear the gospel fully explained. It will be an adventure, and not just because the temperatures can easily push 115°F that time of year. And this is one adventure the entire Workman family wants to engage in! Please pray for the preparation and additional costs involved, but most of all that at least 10 students join us for the project!

trois I'M GOING TO DISNEYLAND!

We were all thrilled to have May's mom and dad visit us over Christmas. To top it all off, they took May and the boys to Disneyland in Paris to celebrate New Year's. Such fun, such memories!
