TEAM SIZE DOUBLES

For the past seven years the creative media team has consisted of Dan and one other person, first Davis and more recently Alexis. Last week there were four of us at our team meeting! We are excited to welcome Alice and Sarah. Alice came to know Cru through our local campus ministry. She is joining us within the framework of a civic service year, participating in a number of different facets of what we do here in France. One day a week is with Dan's team. Alice has a degree in communications, which fits really well. She is helping us with our online social media campaigns. Sarah and her family are in their second year in Rennes. She, her husband David, and four boys moved to Rennes from Orlando where they were part of the Jesus Film. Sarah is enthusiastically contributing with her graphics design and artistic skills. Though everyone else is part time with this team, it's still a big increase in capacity. We're looking forward to taking on new projects and learning how we each can use our skills and grow together.

75 YEARS

The same year that Joe DiMaggio retired from baseball and Disney's Alice in Wonderland hit the big screen, Bill and Vonette Bright started Campus Crusade for Christ. Cru is now celebrating 75 years of faithfully sharing the good news of Jesus and equipping others to go and make disciples. What started with two devoted people now involves more than 16,000 missionaries, covering nearly 9,000 campuses worldwide as well as other ministries like Family Life, Athletes in Action, the Jesus Film or Crescendo. In His faithfulness, God is crafting a story of changed lives which has spanned generations with an impact we will only see clearly in heaven. May and I have been on staff for 25 years now, and it remains a privilege. Thank you for being an integral part of this story!

Dan & May

Praises

- for the additional help on the creative team!

Please pray

- for good synergy with the creative media team, and plenty of projects for us to do
- that May and her global colleagues will have good, clear communication
